

CHES Forum 2021

18th May 2021 | Online

Each 10-minute presentation will be followed by a Q&A and breakout discussions

10:00 Welcome & introduction – Prof. Liz Price, Chair of CHES, Head of Department of Natural Sciences and Institutional Academic Lead for the Environment, Manchester Metropolitan University

10:05 Experiences of teaching during COVID-19: Presenting the survey results – Dr. Alison Stokes, Vice Chair of CHES, Programme Lead for undergraduate environmental programmes, University of Plymouth

10:20 Learning about the outdoors, indoors – Dr. Naomi Holmes, course leader for BSc Environmental Science, Sheffield Hallam University & Anna Hawkins, environmental social scientist, Sheffield Hallam University

10:50 Giving students their (anonymous) voices – Dr. Naomi Holmes & Anna Hawkins

Student experience of COVID-19 – Ellen Dainty, BSc Applied Terrestrial and Marine Ecology, Bangor University & Evangeline Rowe, BSc Environmental Science, Bournemouth University

11:30 Break

11:45 Equality, diversity & inclusivity in the environmental sector – Dan Ward, Programme Lead, Institution of Environmental Sciences

12:20 Adapting carbon literacy for online delivery – Dr. Rachel Dunk, Principal Lecturer in Environmental Management and Sustainable Development, Manchester Metropolitan University

12:50 Plenary: What's next? – Dr Michelle Hale, Vice Chair of CHES, Head of the School of the Environment, Geography and Geosciences, University of Portsmouth

13:10 Conclusion

13:15 Forum close

The Forum will be followed by the CHES AGM at 14:00 – 15:00.
All CHES Members are welcome to attend the AGM.